

Hate Crime Grants Programme 2022 - 2023
Groups Awarded	Activity Funded	Amount Awarded
Bolton, Bury and Rochdale African Community	The aim of the workshop is to build understanding of hate crime within the African community to: • Increasing knowledge of Hate Crime reporting centres • Breaking down traditional barriers • For each workshop, we aim to have between 15 and 25 participants.	£1,000
Bury LGBTQI+	To host a Hate Crime Event in Radcliffe to raise awareness of hate crime within asylum seekers in Radcliffe. The purpose being to safeguard relationships between all groups and promote an understanding of the needs of the LGBTQI+ community and the other protected characteristics.	£1,000
Sunnywood Project	The Sunnywood Project will run workshops in the run up to Hate Crime Awareness Week. These workshops will work with a group of 10 young people (13-16) from Bury who identify as LGBTQ+ to produce an online resource on how to support and tackle inequalities they identify from their own personal, lived-in experiences. This resource will provide valuable information about the lived-in stigma faced by the young people of Bury surrounding LGBTQ+ identification. The young people will also deliver a presentation workshop, guided and supported by TSP facilitators, available to local community groups to share their findings, experiences and answer questions during Hate Crime Awareness Week.	£1,000
The Met	The Met will provide creative and artistic facilitation and support to the LGBT+ Youth Group. The programme of activities and events in Hate Crime week 2023 will use arts and culture to help communicate key messages about LGBT+ inclusion, help group members to share their stories and promote the reporting and safeguarding mechanisms that exist to help combat hate crime in the community.	£1,000

Speakeasy	To deliver a Hate Crime workshop to Speakeasy members on Tuesday 8 th February 2023 at a Speakeasy. The project will provide a range of Hate Crime information in an aphasia accessible format, translating the key facts. Improving awareness and understanding of Hate Crime by providing accessibility information for people with aphasia	£1,000
Supporting Sisters	The project will deliver a one-day event for young people to increase the understanding of what is hate crime and gain confidence in reporting hate crime. The purpose of the event is to Increase trust in local statutory organizations from diverse backgrounds with members of the community, specifically those living within the Moorside area. Expected 100 beneficiaries. .	£1,000
Forum for Discussion of Israel and Palestine	To host events that will endeavour to engage with, and increase awareness of, hate crime, and ways to report this. The project aims to engage people who would otherwise be missed in the traditional outreach. These groups will include, people of faith. Due to the groups base (a popular city centre office block), When speaking to people working in the block, many are unaware what hate crime is and how it can be reported the project will also focus on people of faith, working with our Ambassadors to reach their peers and communities. We will engage Bury Faith Forum with the project and events.	£1,000
